JUNE 4, 2003 MINUTES

Board members present: Mike Bean, Debbie Doyle, Mark Leonard, Bill Jenuwine, David Eisenbacher

Guest residents: Dave Jaska, Bob Laliberte

>Mike motioned to approve May minutes. Mark second.

>Parks:

Mark Leonard will remove dead trees at Lakeside Commons.

- seeding of islands

June 24 goose round up scheduled from non infected trees will be placed at Lakeside swings such as phlox ground cover along with a drought resistant hosta and tiger lily. Mike or Barb will talk to the neighbors project. $300 approved to purchase plants.

>COTHA: Bill Jenuwine was awarded one of various volunteer awards given out each year. David reported that the ceremony was very well done.

>Treasure

that they would think about that.

>Mike mentioned that his availability would be limited in the future due to his job stepping out of the president's position and limit his involvement.

>David gave an update on the proposed civic center. A vote will go to the residents in April 2004. He also explained how the funding and financial backing of this project would be handled.

> Garage Sale: Good feedback from residents. Next year it was agreed that we will advertise for Saturday only. Friday will be set aside for residents. All were disappointed that the City of Troy took our vinyl banners valued at $300. It was agreed that the city needs to adjust their sign variance policy. David will check to see if our banners are still at the city. He indicated they usually throw them away within a few days.

>Aquatic Center Flyer: try to send bulk mail. Both David and Debbie mentioned that the bulk mail has not been timely.

>1640 Crestline residence update: Bill clarified the problem from the May meeting. Backyard neighbor of Crestline homeowner has unkept yard. Homeowner was to contact the city regarding this problem

>Stop sign at Kings Point and Harmony. Howard Dennis followed up with information. David Eisenbacher will pass along information to the city's traffic engineer.

>David gave an update on paving Raintree #1. Looks like the end of the summer for this portion of the sub.

>Mark Leonard's new email: mleonard@leonardbros.com

Mike motioned to adjourn meeting. Debbie second.
