

A quorum of board members was not present for the May meeting so there were no actions and no minutes.